STATION'S MESSAGE:

Hello Richmond District,

We at Richmond Police Station are deeply saddened by the devastation caused by natural events in the past couple of weeks. There have been extreme hurricanes in Texas, Florida, and the many of the Caribbean Islands and the large earthquakes throughout Mexico. These disasters are very hard to avoid but sometimes being prepared can help you and your family tremendously.

The San Francisco Police Department along with other public safety agencies encourages residents to be prepared for possible large scale natural disasters. The following website can help keep you ready in the possible event of a disaster.

www.SF72.org- SF72 is your hub for emergency preparedness. You'll find information about what to do in an emergency, simple steps to get connected, and useful guides to help you get prepared. See page 4-5 for more information. As always stay safe.

5 simple steps to be more prepared today

- 1 Identify an out of area contact.
- 2 Know your connections—who will you rely on and who will rely on you?
- 3 Establish a meeting place for you and your connections.
- 4 Take stock of the things you use every day that also could be useful in an emergency. These are the makings of disaster supplies.
- 5 Talk about what you've done to be prepared with the people you care about.
